How have you given new life to a piece of junk? Tell us in the comments section below for a chance to win this incredibly chic Upcycled Military Tent Tote Bag! One winner will be selected!

At Uptown Redesigns, owner/designer Sandy Philpott transforms outdated leather coats into upcycled handbags. Also inspired by durable canvas salvaged from discarded US Army tents, Sandy recently designed a collection of hip, made-to-order "Upcycled Military Tent Totes," featured above. Each bag is individually designed and handcrafted in her New Orleans studio.
